Dear Mr. Temianka,

Your letter to my husband just arrived, but I am answering it as he cannot read nor write due to his loss of central vision.

It is, of course, impossible for him to accept your invitation to play with your orchestra because he does not accept anymore any concert engagements after the month of May 1976.

for which we thank you very much!
We did receive your book, Arthur read some of it with delight when he could still read, now I took over reading it and often read passages to him. We both find it very entertaining and excellently written! I am sure it is going to be a big and well deserved success.

With best regards and good wishes for a Happy New Year,

Yours sincerely,

Mrs. Arthur Rubinstein
